Form 990-EZ, Part III - Organization's Primary Exempt Purpose

The Invictus Initiative is an organization that coordinates volunteers and resources to help the most disadvantaged individuals around the world live fulfilling and empowered lives. We effectively match the skills, abilities and resources of our volunteers to appropriate projects and humanitarian causes around the globe.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28 - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

The Invictus Initiative coordinated skills and resources of volunteers into various community-driven initiatives in a total of four continents around the world. Measuring impact of past projects, assessing long-term community needs, and working with community members to initiate sustainable solutions to previously identified community needs, the organization successfully developed relationships with community partners and was able to empower and transform lives. Working with

Additionally, through education and instruction, the community members were empowered with the means and technology to continue mapping key data points designated as relevant by those communities for the development of a master area plan. The Invictus Initiative continued to work with a partnering community in western Kenya on the development of a proposed bridge used by several hundred pedestrians, many of which are school children traveling to and from school.
